Ever wondered what Wraparound is? Have you thought about helping a family or youth gain skills while focusing on strengths and discovering unmet needs to collaboratively solve problems? Learn more about the Wraparound Process and Philosophy, learn how to facilitate teams, and acquire great skills you can apply throughout your own agencies at this 3-day training. Learn to address difficult behaviors, parenting, emotional issues, school issues, social well-being, and many other issues families and youth have as a team using strengths and creative strategies.
