

Kinship Care

Information and support for grandparents and other relatives caring for grandchildren or young family members.

Legal Information

Tuesday, January 29

A local attorney and a representative from the Seneca County Juvenile and Probate Court will discuss legal issues related to caring for children including custody, legal forms, and available resources.

Education: Back to School

Tuesday, February 26

It can be difficult to raise young children and navigate today's educational system – homework, conferences, curriculum, and technology. Staff from Tiffin City Schools and the Tiffin-Seneca Public Library will answer questions and share strategies to make this easier for caregivers.

Emotional/Behavioral Well Being

Tuesday, February 12

Children living in families with substance abuse or other problems often experience trauma that can result in emotional and behavioral issues. Mental health and children's services professionals will discuss these issues and what resources are offered in Seneca County.

Financial Resources

Tuesday, March 12

Providing kinship care can be an unexpected financial burden. Staff from multiple agencies in Seneca County will discuss financial assistance and other available resources.

Dinner will be served at 6:00 p.m. Program will begin at 6:30 p.m. Free; no registration required. All events will be held in the Frost Kalnow Room of the Tiffin-Seneca Public Library.

Supervised activities available in the Junior Library for children preschool age and older. Infants and children in diapers will remain with their caregivers.
